25 lightweight Christmas gifts suitable for sea mail

No-one wants to pay more than they should for shipping, so you might want to consider selecting items that you can send to UK* or Europe that weigh less than 500 grams, making them fantastically affordable for sea mail.

Here's 25 unusual gift options:

1. Is he or she glued to the phone, even when driving? Give him or her a Camzilla Universal iPhone Car Mount, arguably the best basic suction mount on the market for iPhones and all other phones. This $34 mount weighs just 180 grams and is great for any driver with a phone, especially those with GPS functions.
2. Are your nieces and nephews ALWAYS on their phones and computers? Protect them from the electromagnetic fields produced by TV, mobile phones, microwaves, and wi-fi with a Scalar Energy Pendant. This 'Earthing' health pendant costs $59.95 and suits kids up to 15 years old.
3. Are they renting? Let them display their photos on the wall with the Photocurator, a product where they can set up a elegant, ever-changing composition of images on the wall which can then be updated easily and regularly. Great for snaps of your latest holiday with family, night out with friends or photos of the grandchildren. Available for just $20 in a wide range of colour options. Perfect for parents, grandparents and couples.
4. If you know them verrrrry well, you might send them an Australian-made 100% silk eyemask and handties set with or without French lace trim in black or cream, for Christmas or a naughty wedding gift. Costs $165 for the set or $99 for the eye mask alone.
5. Update the kids' room with Noosh's Benny Knicker Stickers, removable and reusable decals that are designed to go on children's drawers. Each sticker displays an illustration and name of the item of clothing, teaching kids word recognition and to dress themselves! Each set has 6 stickers for underpants, singlets, socks, shorts, pants and t-shirts and the sets come in blue or pink on a linen background. They retail for $35 and weigh less than 250 grams.
6. Sock Monkeys weigh approximately 200 grams and are a cute gift idea for babies and children They're handmade monkeys from a pair of brand-new colourful socks.
7. Just the thing to freak the kids out at school! Send them Creepy Creature Candy edible insect gift packs of 5 x insect lollipops, 1 x chocolate-covered insect pack and 2 x packs of choc chip mealworm cookies in a gift box.
8. Your mother or sister may love a beautiful handmade necklace and earring set by Indian artisan Shikhar Jain for just $35. They feature a multi-strand pink beaded necklace with sparkling pink rhinestone balls.
9. The Amazing Stain Remover is a timely little Christmas gift idea with guests drinking, eating and no doubt, spilling things. Packaged in an attractive black or silver atomiser inside a gift box this little gem will remove stains from clothing instantly when and where they occur. Australian made and owned, it's a must for the Christmas hostess for just $10.95.
10. A thoughtful stocking filler and super-light to send is a stylish recycled rubber mouse pad for just $15.00 from The Noble Box.
11. Spoil your mum, grandmother or sister with a beautiful bright pink AnaCris leather clutch in gold or silver hardware. Perfect for looking stylish at classy events.
12. Is someone special expecting a baby? What about a modern, chic pregnancy calendar? It offers weekly updates of baby's progress, hints, tips, monthly checklist, stickers to mark important milestones & appointments and much more. A great gift idea for just $24.95.
13. Those bus rolls (you know, the ones with the destinations) are so popular right now so you may like to send someone an Australia-made bus roll tea towel for just $19.95 each from www.sohohomewares.com.au.
14. Counting down the days to Christmas is more fun with a Christmas Townhouse Advent Calender. Packaged flat (152 x 293 mm), wrapped in clear cellophane, it folds out to become a 4-storey house. All the little windows and doors open to reveal Christmas activities: inside everyone is baking, wrapping presents decorating trees or singing carols in preparation for Christmas. Perfect for families with children who will enjoy discovering the pictures behind each window. The unique design is by artist Amanda Loverseed.
15. Keep UK relatives warm with beautiful hand-painted wool scarves from Indigo Inspirations that weigh only 100 grams.

16. Everyone loves the luxury of cashmere and this elegant 140cm long rib scarf from Everyday Cashmere is 100% cashmere. It suits everybody, goes anywhere, fits in any bag, keeps your neck warm, adds warmth to the skin tones of your face and is available in many colours for just $80, all for 100 grams.

17. Dingarings are a 3-in-1 baby toy: a natural wood teething ring, a soft toy and a gentle rattle. There are eight varieties and they each have their own personalities. There is Tony Tree Frog, Keith Koala, Betty Butterfly, Craig Crocodile, Pete Penguin, Emma Owl, Gigi Galah and Lulu Ladybug. Only $19.95, they weigh just 75 grams including the packaging they come in!

18. Treadley Helmet Hats were invented by an Australian mum who couldn't find a product to provide sun protection for her family. A clever, fitted cover that goes over a bike helmet to minimise sun exposure to the face, eyes, ears and back of neck, the design meets Australian Cancer Council guidelines and most have UPF50+ rating. 14 designs for infants, children and adults. Great for anyone who cycles, scooters or cruisers, they weigh 110 grams, are non-breakable, and can even get wet without damage.

19. Bronwen Fallens has written a series of children's books called My Super Family dealing with alternate family situations. Choose from My Super Single Mum, My Two Super Dads and My Super Groovy Gran for just $15 each.

20. Did you know many couples announce their engagement in November so they can celebrate with each other's families at Christmastime? Whether your favourite pair are getting married or not, a great gift to send to loved ones in the UK via seamaile is a boxed gift certificate for a luxury 35-page LoveStars astrology report for couples. They simply redeem their gift certificate code at checkout to receive their report all about their relationship a few days later. Visit www.itsinthestaronline.com

21. Many families go travelling at Christmas so a clever gift for those with kids aged under 8 years old is a travel car playmat to keep the kids occupied when travelling, seeing family or when dining out at cafes and restaurants. See www.madeit.com.au/missyandmoo

22. A fantastic way for kids to discover the history of the world is the Histiograph world history timeline chart. Weighing just under 200 grams including the envelope, the Histiograph costs $29.95, depicting the rise and fall of people, nations and cultures from 1500BCE to the present day.

23. One very unique gift is a deck of 108 guidance cards from Lifetiles 108, designed to give you intuitive direction through messages that provide encouragement, self-confidence or that help you focus on an area you may have overlooked. Weighing only 270 grams, they cost $39.95 and make an original Christmas gift for couples.

24. Great for cyclists, travellers and those who are constantly out and about are Bottles for Earth. These quirky reusable water bottles are made from the finest quality 18/8 stainless steel and BPA free. They feature fun slogans such as: "Save the earth it's the only planet with waves", "Half full not half empty", "Water by day, Vodka by night". Available in 500ml ($19.95) and 750ml for $22.95.

25. A great gift for techies is AudioVibes X-Sticker Vibrating Speaker. This funky, tiny coloured unit can turn almost any object into a speaker using unique vibration technology! You simply plug it into the 3.5mm headphone jack of any device, turn on the unit powered by 2 x AAA batteries or USB and then stick the vibrating unit onto any device. It works on almost any device such as a car, wheelie bin, esky, cardboard box, mirror, umbrella, wall, laptop. It makes listening to music an interactive experience with family and friends, and you can even use it for the beach or camping. Only $29.95.

* The UK sea mail deadline from Australia is 21 September 2011.

 The Europe sea mail deadline from Australia is 28 September 2011.
